

Korean Heritage House Two Day Culture Camp

July 11 (tuesday) + July 12 (wednesday)

10:00 am – 4:00 pm

Hosted at Kgam Studio: 515 Wisconsin Street, Eau Claire, WI 54703

Students from the *Ewha University in Seoul, South Korea, will be hosted by Brooke Jee-in Newmaster at Kgam Studio in Eau Claire, Wisconsin. This Korean Heritage House two day culture camp will offer fun filled activities focused on Korean culture – both contemporary and traditional. Each day the camp will offer lessons in language, arts & crafts, music, traditional drumming & drum dance, pop culture, food traditions and fun games! Korean lunch is included in the camp fee. Campers are welcome to bring their own snacks/lunch.

*The Ewha University Global Overseas Volunteers are flying in from Seoul Korea to help Korean adoptees and their siblings, Korean Americans, Bi-racial Koreans and the larger community to learn about Korean culture.

ALL ARE WELCOME HERE!

Special Korean dance teacher Mrs. Shin is also flying in from Seoul, Korea to teach a special drum dance to the campers!!

Camp is for kids 1st grade -- through High schoolers, (Toddlers & Kindergartners may participate if accompanied by a parent/guardian. Parents are free with a small suggested donation towards the lunch) Limited to 25 students. Don't miss this very special opportunity! Ewha University is the top women's University in South Korea. The students are voluntary cultural ambassadors and are passionate about teaching Korean adopted children, their families and the wider American community about the beauty and depth of Korean culture.
